Composite Predictions from Sun-Sign and Root Number

General :

Your Sun-Sign is Cancer – which is governed by the mental planet Moon. Your Numeral Category is 5 – which number is governed by Mercury, the planet of intellect. This is a very favorable combination, and you will be fortunate many respects. In one hand, Moon will make you emotional, imaginative, and romantic in disposition; on the other hand, owing to the influence of Mercury, you will be very intelligent, clever, and versatile; both the influences operating together will make you an accomplished person. You will be a well educated, cultured, and refined person with courteous behavior, gentle manners, and pleasing disposition. You will have a special kind of ability for creating dramatic situations, and appealing to the emotions and sentiments of others; the publicity you will get for these qualities will bring you to limelight. Although you might be quite dictatorial in your behavior, and at times brusque in your speech, yet you will be very clever to ensure that you still enjoy the support of the majority. You will excel in intellectual pursuits, and may have proficiency or interest in some sort of artistic pursuits; in the field of research also, you may have success. You may also possess the gift of clairvoyance or psychometric talents.

You will be endowed with a very fertile imagination and exceptional mental abilities. Although you will be quite restless and very changeful, yet you will be an avid reader, and your interest will cover a wide variety of subjects. You will have a flair for remembering facts and figures – as you will be endowed with a highly retentive memory. Although you will be analytical and critical, yet you will have an observing nature. You will possess exceptional keen-ness, original reasoning powers, and alertness of mind. As you will be able to create desirable impressions in the minds of your contemporaries, you will easily be able to secure a position of trust. People in general will love you for your characteristic qualities. You will receive acclaim and gain honor owing to some of your special contributions. You will feel closely drawn to persons born on dates of the 2-series – i.e., on dates (2 or 11 or 20 or 29) of any month; You will also be drawn to persons born on dates of the 7-series – i.e., on dates (7 or 16 or 25) of any month.

You may not like to adhere to a single person, thing, or place for long; as such you are likely to have many changes in your life and career. Owing to your characteristic changeful of nature, people may find it difficult to understand you properly. As you will be acquainted with people very easily, your circle of acquaintances will be quite large. In case of friendship, however, the obverse may hold good; but with a few friends you will have, as you will intermingle with others on the intellectual plane mainly, the relationship will be fairly lasting. You may have a few love affairs, but in love you might be quite changeable in your affections; it would be rather better for you not to marry at an early age-period – as it might be a wrong choice. However, once you get married, you will remain very faithful and loyal to your loved ones. Traveling will greatly attract you, and you will be very much fond of spending time in watery places like rivers, lakes, seas, etc.

Finance :

You will do well in intellectual avocations where the ability to think fast is a prime requisite. You may not opt for running an independent business – as you may like to remain free and enjoy the adventures in the world of your dreams. You may fare well in administrative and public relation jobs. In connection with your profession, you may have close contact with the common working-class people. Shipping, transport, foreign trade, etc may be highly favorable lines for you. In respect of earnings, you may face a lot of fluctuations – although at times you will be grabbing large sums; your fortune may not be very steady; so, you should keep adequate provisions for the future. Although at times you may have good gains from speculative investments, yet you should avoid it altogether – otherwise, it can suddenly pull you down on your knees.

Health :

Your state of health might become somewhat delicate – as you grow older. You might be particularly sensitive to changes of climatic and environmental conditions; so you should adopt necessary preventive and precautionary measures. You are likely to suffer from indigestion, stomach problems, lesions and adhesions in intestines, pains and cramps in internal organs, etc. You must have a close watch on your diet; taking exercise regularly or practicing ‘yoga’-asana, and having adequate sleep and rest in time will keep you in good shape.
